Tickets for adults are $17 in advance and $20 the day of the concert. Children 10 and under are $10. To buy tickets, go to www.chorusofkentcounty.com or call 401-862-3105

Children's Church

Looking for Help with Children's Church

Children's church is a time for children to worship God with movement, play and creativity. After the children's sermon the children are invited to go to the fellowship hall for a time of games and crafts. They will be brought back to the sanctuary before Holy Communion. Two adults supervise the children. If you are interested in helping, please let Pastor Todd or Margaret Teehan know.

First Morning

by Joy Harjo

This is the first morning we are without you on earth.

The sun greeted us after a week of rain

In your eastern green and mountain homelands.

Plants are fed, the river restored, and you have been woven into a path of embracing stars of all colors

Now free of the suffering that shapes us here.

We all learn to let go, like learning to walk

When we first arrive here.

All those you thought you lost now circle you

And you are free of pain and heartbreak.

Don't look back, keep going.

We will carry your memory here, until we join you

In just a little while, in one blink of star time.

Please keep these children of God in your prayers this week:

For healing & comfort: Erica Stacy (Elaine Johnson's daughter)

Upcoming Commemorations

Clement, Bishop of Rome, died around 100 Wednesday, November 23, 2022

Clement was the third bishop of Rome. He is best remembered for a letter he wrote to the congregation in Corinth, still struggling with the same problems that led to Paul's letters to them. As did Paul, he focused on the need for love among Christians.

Miguel Agustín Pro, martyr, died 1927 Wednesday, November 23, 2022

Pro grew up in a time when the Mexican revolutionaries accused the church of siding with the wealthy. He became a Jesuit priest, and worked on behalf of the poor and homeless. Falsely accused of throwing a bomb at a government official, he was executed, but not before crying out "Long live Christ the King!"

Justus Falckner, died 1723; Jehu Jones, died 1852; William Passavant, died 1894; pastors in North America

Thursday, November 24, 2022

Not only was Falckner the first Lutheran ordained in North America, but he published a catechism which was the first Lutheran book published on the continent. Jones was the Lutheran church's first African American pastor and carried out missionary work in Philadelphia which led to the formation there of the first African American Lutheran congregation (St. Paul's). William Passavant helped to establish hospitals and orphanages in a number of cities and was the first to introduce deaconesses to the work of hospitals in the United States.

Isaac Watts, hymnwriter, died 1748 Friday, November 25, 2022

Thought by many to be the greatest hymnwriter in the English language, Watts as a youth was critical of the quality of the metrical psalter of the time. He wrote about 600 hymns—many based on the psalms, but others that are not.
