Help ELCA World Hunger get a matching grant

The Horn of Africa is experiencing its worst drought in decades. Kojo is a mother who lives in the Kakuma Refugee Camp in northwestern Kenya. The stresses of drought facing the Horn of Africa, compounded by the global food crisis, have had a big impact on Kojo and her three kids. “We did not have fresh food, and at the time no one in the whole village practiced farming.” Things improved for Kojo when she attended trainings, supported in part by ELCA World Hunger, to learn about “net-house” farming. This method of farming, employing net-enclosed structures, is cost-effective and allows Kojo to cultivate crops year-round, regardless of harsh climate conditions
“Our lives have really changed!”

New England Synod Matching Grant for ELCA World Hunger

The World Hunger Team of the New England Synod is raising funds in the hopes of getting a $100,000 matching grant. Funds for the matching grant must be received on or before May 28, 2023. If you would like to donate please go to the link below and click on the “ELCA World Hunger” button at the bottom.

$$$ Available for Emanuel's Bazaar!

Crafters,

Last year everyone was so generous in donating so many crafts, goods, and food for the Bazaar. YOU made our Bazaar such a wonderful success!

We have set aside money to help our church members in their support of the 2023 Bazaar. If you plan on making and donating crafts, we are offering to partially reimburse you for the money you have spent!

Please submit your receipts to Sue Wieboldt to be reimbursed up to $50.

Thank you for all you do to support Emanuel!

Upcoming Commemorations

Monica, mother of Augustine, died 387

Thursday, May 4, 2023

Monica was married to a pagan husband who was ill-tempered and unfaithful, but whom she helped bring into the Christian faith. She repeated the influence on her son Augustine, who went on to become one of the greatest church teachers.

Julian of Norwich, renewer of the church, died around 1416

Monday, May 8, 2023

When she was about thirty years old, Julian (or Juliana) reported visions that she later compiled into a book, Sixteen Revelations of Divine Love, now a classic of medieval mysticism. The visions declared that love was the meaning of religious experience, provided by Christ who is love, for the purpose of love.

Victor the Moor, martyr, died 303 (TFF)

Monday, May 8, 2023

Also known as Victor Maurus, this native of the northwest African nation of Mauritania was a soldier in the Roman Praetorian Guard. Under the persecution of Maximian, Victor died for his faith at Milan.

Nicolaus Ludwig von Zinzendorf, renewer of the church, hymnwriter, died 1760

Tuesday, May 9, 2023

When he was 22, a group of Moravians asked permission to live on Zinzendorf's land. He agreed, and eventually worldwide Moravian missions emanated from this community. Zinzendorf participated in these missions, and is also remembered for writing hymns characteristic of his Pietistic faith.
