Your Input is Requested

as the New England Synod prepares to elect another Bishop

Bishop James Hazelwood announced that he will be stepping down as bishop of the New England Synod in June 2024. At next year's synod assembly a new bishop will be elected. In preparation of that selection process the synod is taking a landscape survey of how people are feeling in the synod, what challenges we face, and what qualities do we think the next bishop should have.

Please consider taking the online survey at the link below. The survey will be up until June 30th. Thank you.

Looking for a ride to church

Some of you may remember Scott Watson. He used to come to Emanuel with his mother Jane. He hasn't been to church since the pandemic. Scott lives at Wescott Terrace (about 2 miles from Emanuel) and would like to come to church some Sunday, but needs a ride.

If you could give Scott a ride some Sunday, please let Pastor Todd know. Thank you.

Emanuel Camp Scholarships

If you know a child 8 years old to 16 years old, we'd like to help send them for a week of camp. The Wallace Anderson & John Carlson Campership funds are being given away now for Camp Calumet.

Camp Calumet is in West Ossipee, New Hampshire and sits on beautiful Lake Ossipee. For over 50 years people have been making friends, getting closer to God, and having fun at Calumet.

Looking for help setting up for

Holy Communion

One victim of the COVID pandemic was Emanuel's altar guild. With remote worship there wasn't a need to setup for Holy Communion on a regular basis. Pastor Todd took on these duties when there were needed.

Now that we are having Holy Communion each Sunday, there's a need once again for an altar guild at Emanuel. Pastor Todd would appreciate the help in setting up for Holy Communion (it takes about 15 minutes) and would be happy to show what's needed and how to do it.

If you are interested in helping, please let Pastor Todd or Bruce Johnson know. Thank you.

Upcoming Commemorations

John the Baptist

Saturday, June 24, 2023

John said, "[Jesus] must increase, but I must decrease." And so his birth is celebrated half a year before Jesus', just as the daylight in the northern hemisphere begins to wane. Jesus honored John as being the greatest prophet.

Sunday, June 25, 2023

On this day in 1530 the German and Latin editions of the Augsburg Confession were presented to the Emperor Charles of the Holy Roman Empire. The Augsburg Confession was written by Philipp Melanchthon and endorsed by Martin Luther, and consists of a brief summary of points in which the reformers saw their teaching as either agreeing with or differing from that of the Roman Catholic Church of the time.

Philipp Melanchthon, renewer of the church, died 1560

Sunday, June 25, 2023

Though he died on April 19, Philipp Melanchthon is commemorated today because of his connection with the Augsburg Confession. Colleague and co-reformer with Martin Luther, Melanchthon was a brilliant scholar, known as "the teacher of Germany."

Cyril, Bishop of Alexandria, died 444

Tuesday, June 27, 2023

Cyril defended the orthodox teachings about the person of Christ. After a conflict involving all of the major Christian leaders of the time, it was decided that Cyril's interpretation, that Christ's person included both divine and human natures, was correct.

Irenaeus, Bishop of Lyons, died around 202

Wednesday, June 28, 2023

This important early church leader tried very hard to hold to the faith handed down by the apostles. An opponent of the movement known as gnosticism, Irenaeus was one of the first to speak of the church as catholic, or linked together.

Peter and Paul, Apostles

Thursday, June 29, 2023

These two strong-willed apostles are the pillars of the church in the first generation after Christ. Peter was one of the Twelve, one who both offered a glorious confession of faith and later denied knowing Jesus. Paul once led the persecution of Christians, then was converted and helped bring the faith to non-Jewish people.

Catherine Winkworth, died 1878; John Mason Neale, died 1866; hymn translators

Saturday, July 1, 2023

Neale was an English priest who specialized in the translation of Latin and Greek hymns into English. Winkworth lived in Manchester, England, and devoted herself to translating German hymns. Almost all English-speaking hymnals include many of their translations.
