Something New

Starting this Sunday 9/10 Emanuel will begin using the Narrative Lectionary

What is the Narrative Lectionary?

A lectionary is the guide which tells us which Bible readings to use each Sunday. For the past 3 years we have been using the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL). Many denominations use the RCL, e.g. Roman Catholics, Episcopalians, Methodists, Baptists, etc. There's a benefit in being in sync with other churches, but the RCL also has some weaknesses – the RCL sometimes pulls stories randomly week to week and it can be hard to get a sense of the chronological story of the Bible. This is especially true with the Old Testament readings.

The Narrative Lectionary (NL) was created in 2010 at Luther seminary in order to lift up some of the stories in the Bible that aren't told that often, and to give a chronological telling of the biblical story from start to finish. In the fall the NL readings begin in Genesis and sweep their way through the Old Testament. Then starting at Christmas the NL begins working through one of the gospels from the beginning (Jesus' birth) to the end (Jesus' resurrection). This year we will be reading through the gospel of Mark. After Easter the NL tells the story of the early church, pulling readings from Acts and the epistles.

Sometimes it's nice to try something new. In this case the NL isn't entirely new to Emanuel. We used the NL from 2016 to 2020. This will be our second go around with the NL. It is my hope that in doing so we will hear something new and experience the Bible in a new way, and that through this our faith will be deepened. If you have any questions, please let me know. Thank you.

Upcoming Commemorations

Peter Claver, priest, missionary to Colombia, died 1654 Saturday, September 9, 2023

Born into Spanish nobility, Claver became a Jesuit missionary, and served in present-day Colombia. His ministry was focused on the enslaved people who arrived there. He gave them food and medicine, learned their dialects, and taught them Christianity.

John Chrysostom, Bishop of Constantinople, died 407 Wednesday, September 13, 2023

John was a priest in Antioch and an outstanding preacher. His eloquence earned him the nickname "Chrysostom" ("golden mouth"). Appointed bishop of Constantinople, seat of the empire, he criticized corruption in the court. As a result, he was exiled by the empress.

Holy Cross Day Thursday, September 14, 2023

Helena, mother of Constantine, made a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and found what may be the actual site of Jesus' crucifixion. Her son built two churches there, and the dedication of one of them gave rise to this celebration of our Lord's victory on the cross.

Cyprian, Bishop of Carthage, martyr, died around 258 Saturday, September 16, 2023

Cyprian served as a bishop during a time of great persecution of Christians. He insisted on receiving back those who had left the faith under duress. He also provided medical care during a severe epidemic.
